

APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED: OXFORD COUNTY JAIL

CORRECTIONS OFFICER POSITION

FULL TIME and Reserve Officers

March 2016 Until Filled

OXFORD COUNTY JAIL is accepting applications at this time for a Corrections officer.

Oxford County Jail is an equal employment employer

**Applicants must obtain Corrections officer Certification from the Maine Criminal Justice Academy within one year from date of hire. Paid for by Oxford County Jail.

Reserve officer applicants:

** If an applicant is able to attend the training academy (5) week "200" hour required course, within 1 year, those applicants "may" be considered, by making an appointment with Captain Edward M Quinn . 207-743-5870 or equinn@oxfordcountysheriff.com for interview and consideration of applicants ability to attend training.

Job Description:

Correctional Officers primary duties relates to the supervision of inmates within the jail facility. The correctional officer is responsible for everything which occurs in the facility during the tour of duty, and will implement measures within the policies and procedures of the jail to maintain a high level of security while ensuring a safe and humane living environment for inmates.

Must be 18 years of Age or older

High school diploma or equivalent

Active Driver's License/ No criminal history

Pass a background investigation/Polygraph/Psychological and physical exam.

Current Maine Criminal Justice Academy Corrections officer certification

Applications can be obtained at Oxford County Jail, 26 Western Ave, South Paris Maine, 207-743-5870 for directions. Or email equinn@oxfordcountysheriff.com

Captain Edward M Quinn

Oxford County Jail